The President then reported to the Meeting regarding Berli Jucker Public Company Limited and its subsidiaries' operations, significant activities for 2006 financial year and conclusion on the 2006 results as follows:

The year 2006 continued to be affected by several key factors that negatively impacted the business climate in 2005. Raw material, fuel costs, interest rate, maintained their high level, severe flood, a long strife in three provinces of the Southern and the drought.

Glass container business was hampered by the overcapacity, intense competition, soaring production costs, and restrictions on advertising of alcoholic beverages. However, the improvement was forthcoming in the last quarter of the year.

Plastic Packaging and Medical Supplies were among businesses that recorded better revenue growth than initially anticipated. The Company had also made a considerable progress in laying a solid groundwork on which to drive growth in our business in flavors, fragrances and chemicals for food, bakery and animal food. The markets, locally and in neighboring countries, would certainly bring greater returns in the near future.

Financial Results

For the year ended 31 December 2006, BJC posted Baht 15,563 million in sales revenue, representing an increase of 3% over 2005. Our consolidated net income of 2006 was Baht 868 million, representing a decrease by 9% versus 2005.

Summary of performance of each of the six core business of BJC was as follows:

Packaging

Due to an increased demand for 'Chang' beer and food containers, total revenues earned from glass container sales increased slightly, when compared with 2005. Profitability decreased as rising raw material and fuel costs contributed to higher overheads in products.

Sales of plastic containers produced by our joint venture, Berli Dynaplast, were up by 17% and the profitability posted at a satisfactory level.

At Thai Glass Industries, several new measures were introduced to enable greater efficiency and cost reduction in production. The previous power by fuel oil had been converted to natural gas at Bangplee Factory and installed own electrical power supply 115 kV. Light-weight containers were developed to be able to meet customer's need.

Consumer Products

Sales revenue of Rubia Industries grew by 5%. BJC Cellox posted a growth of sales from increasing production capacity from our new tissue paper plant in Prachinburi. Despite the slowing economy and fiercely competitive market, BJC Foods performed satisfactorily, and overall operations at BJC Marketing had been improved, compared with 2005.

In 2006, BJC Foods obtained the approval for its investment in a new extrusion line, and installation of this production line is expected to be completed in the first half of 2007. BJC Cellox, with profits decline as a result of a significant increase in energy costs and pulp prices, was likely to perform better in 2007.

Technical and Industrial Products

The success in the launch of new products and the development of new market channels helped BJC Trading to gain the satisfactory sales and profitability in pharmaceuticals, medical supplies, graphic systems, stationery as well as food and flavor ingredients. Prospects for overall growth of technical and industrial products in 2007 were still good.

Construction and Engineering

Due to the slowdown economy and intense competition, this business operation faced with some difficulty. As a consequence, BJC Engineering made extensive effort to focus on business with good potentials and competitive. Thai-Scandic Steel would have better opportunities in both the domestic and export market than in 2006.

Logistics

Total revenues and profits of BJC Logistics were up from levels achieved in 2005. The growth was attributed to an increase in new external customers with income earned from both warehouse operations and customs brokerage services. The growth was most likely to be sustained.

Social Responsibility

Berli Jucker devoted much attention to fostering human potential through education. Education programs, in particular, had been a key focus of its efforts to promote the welfare of the community as a whole.

In 2006, the Company donated 100 scholarships to students from 22 educational institutes nationwide, worth totally Baht 1,800,000. The President clarified that in 2006 the Company's shareholding ratio was below than 50%, the revenue would not be combined in the consolidated financial statement according to the accounting principles.

The President clarified the question from Mr. Suwan Decharin, shareholder, that the Company did not produce glass tableware as the machines were suitable only for glass containers, and also other glass container manufacturers did not produce the glass tableware.

Mr. Noppadol Sayasaewin, shareholder, enquired about the market expansion overseas of Thai Glass Industry Public Company Limited and the strategy plan of Berli Dynaplast. The President clarified that for first half of the year the Glass business did not do well, but was improved during the second half of the year. The Company would plan the expansion of production capacity next year. The increasing of shareholding ratio with Berli Dynaplast would remain unchanged, but if there was any opportunity in the future, we would do so. Our joint venture business partners still insisted to maintain the existing ratio and carry on the business with BJC.

Mr. Suwit Laohapolwattana, shareholder, enquired why the Company did not take more investment in T.C.C Technology Company Limited since it gained a satisfactory net profit in this year.
